To Pak Lim
Prayer Letter ( 3 )
October 2022

Dear kind members of the church, hope you are well.

“No news is good news, but good is also good news”

Firstly, I'd like to begin by thanking everyone in the churching community who has supported me throughout my years in Hong Kong, it hasn't been easy but i wouldn't have made it without you, thank you.

Recently I have been admitted into the Hong Kong Baptist University, enrolling into their year 3 sociology program. I am slowly adjusting into my new life, having taken a 2-year gap year since graduating from the associate degree taken in 2020. Time is relative and for university students they'll know, there is never really enough time now is there. I have been continuing to maintain a balanced life, by playing club rugby and coaching primary and secondary schools on regular bases, now that the winter season is upon us.

To keep this letter short, I would love to thank everyone once again for their faith in me and continuous support of me in Hong Kong. I feel very blessed and strengthened knowing people will always have my back. Please keep praying and supporting, keep warm and stay healthy.

Yours Sincerely,
Leo
